

A Bifocal Coordinate System in General Relativity

Following the generalised form of non-stationary axisymmetric space-time (Chandrasekhar 1983), we assume a bifocale elliptic symmetry and attempt to show that this particular metric can be a solution to Einstein's field equations. We discuss the form of the metric and the curvature implied, as well as its possible physical meaning and applications.

Primary author: Mr CHATZARAKIS, Nikolaos (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki)

Presenter: Mr CHATZARAKIS, Nikolaos (Aristotle University of Thessaloniki)

Session Classification: Coffee+Posters session